

DOJ OFFERS WORKSHOPS IN S.F. CONFERENCE ON GANGS

June 3, 2010

This looks like a great opportunity for members of the Gang Task Force. Although two of the three tracks are geared towards law enforcement, the third track's emphasis is on Prevention and Intervention and is open to all those working with gang-oriented youth.

AND ITS FREE!

MESSAGE FROM US ATTORNEY JOSEPH RUSSONIELLO -- PROJECT SAFE NEIGHBORHOOD/ANTI-GANG TRAINING, SAN FRANCISCO, JULY 7,8,9

Announcing the Project Safe Neighborhoods Anti-Gang Training - San Francisco, CA, Jul 7-9, 2010

A Project Safe Neighborhoods Anti-Gang Training Conference is being held July 7-9, 2010 in San Francisco, California. The goal of this training is to improve the level of knowledge, communication, and collaboration involved in addressing the criminal gang issue affecting communities throughout the nation. The curriculum is based on current policies and proven practices and strategies in the criminal justice field. The training is a collaborative effort among federal partners. Instruction is provided by experienced practitioners and subject-matter experts at no cost to attendees. This training was developed in accordance with the U.S. Department of Justice Initiative for Safer Communities to deliver comprehensive anti-gang training that addresses prevention, enforcement, and prisoner re-entry issues for state and local law enforcement and related partner organizations.

An electronic copy of the flyer is attached for distribution to interested participants. The training is listed on the following website -http://www.iir.com/registration/psnagt.cfm and is accepting registrations. Please make every effort to have your agencies and partners attend this excellent training.
